- 10.5 To the extent permitted by law and the terms of these Conditions, the Client agrees that where the Company provides trimming survey services, the Company shall not be liable for any liabilities, consequences, cost or damages whatsoever arising from any decision, omission or conduct of those who receive any advice, report, comment or statement of the Company during the supply of the trimming survey services. The Client further agrees to indemnify by the Company for any residual liabilities related or arising to from the operation of this clause in relation to trimming survey services.

11. TIME BAR

- 11.1 The Company shall be discharged from all liability to the Client for all claims for loss, damage or expenses unless suit is brought within 6 months after the date of the performance of the Company of the service which gives rise to the claim or in any event of alleged non-performance within 3 months of the date when such service should have been completed.

12. INDEMNITY

- 12.1 The Client shall guarantee, hold harmless and indemnify the Company and its officers, employees, agents or subcontractors against all claims made by any third party for loss, damage or expense of whatsoever nature and howsoever arising relating to the performance, purported performance or non-performance of any services to the extent that the aggregate of any such claims relating to any one service exceed the limits mentioned in Condition 10.
- 12.2 Every officer, employee, agent or subcontractor of the Company shall have the benefit of the limitation of compensation and the indemnity contained in these Conditions and so far as relates to such limitations any contract entered into by the Company is entered into not only on its own behalf but also as agent and trustee for every such person aforesaid.

13. FORCE MAJEURE

- 13.1 A Party will not be liable for a failure to fulfil an obligation pursuant to these terms and conditions if and to the extent to which fulfilment has been delayed, interfered with or prevented by Force Majeure provided always that this clause shall not apply to an obligation to pay money unless that obligation to pay money has been delayed, interfered with or prevented by the imposition of exchange controls or by the actions of a Governmental Agency.

13.2 A Party intending to seek relief under this clause will, before the occurrence of a circumstance of Force Majeure if it is predicted, and in any case as soon as reasonably practicable after learning of the happenings of a circumstance of Force Majeure:

- (i) warn the other Party of a predicted circumstance and notify them of the happening of an actual circumstance, and in each case furnish reasonably full particulars thereof; and
- (ii) give the other Party an estimate of the period of time required to enable it to resume full performance of its obligations.

13.3 A Party seeking to rely on Force Majeure must use reasonable endeavours in all the circumstances:

- (i) to eliminate the circumstance of Force Majeure relied on to enable it to resume full performance of its obligation; and
- (ii) to minimize the effects of the circumstances of Force Majeure, provided however that the settlement of a strike or any other kind of labour dispute will be made by the Party concerned in its discretion.
